Send

BORN TO REPRODUCE

"And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others."
2 Timothy 2:2

Four generations are included in this verse that Paul wrote to Timothy.

1 Paul → 2 Timothy → 3 Reliable people → 4 Others

Consider the questions below:

- Why do you think Paul implored Timothy to find "reliable" people?
- What would have been the result of Timothy not finding reliable people to pass the message along to?

Born to Reproduce

In 1933, Dawson Trotman and his friends began working with sailors in the U.S. Navy. There, Dawson taught sailor Les Spencer the foundations of Christian growth. They spent many hours together praying, studying the Bible, and memorizing Scripture. When one of Spencer's shipmates asked him the secret of his changed life, Spencer brought the man to Trotman: "Teach him what you taught me," to which Dawson said, "You teach him!"

Spencer did teach the sailor, and soon the two men were meeting with others. Eventually, 125 men on their ship, the U.S.S. West Virginia, were growing in Christ and actively sharing their faith. By the end of World War II, thousands of men on ships and bases around the world were learning the principles of spiritual multiplication by the person-to-person teaching of God's word.

Spend time reading Dawson Trotman's 1955 talk Born to Reproduce and discussing the questions below:

Questions for Discussion

1. What stood out to you the most from this message?
2. What does the word "reproducer" mean to you?
3. What would help you the most right now in becoming a "reproducer?" Are there any changes you would make in your life or ministry?
4. What will you be asking God for this year?

This journal was made by the University of Arizona Navigators staff in 2020, with the latest update in 2025, and is meant to be shared. Please do not reproduce for profit.

For reproduction, corrections, suggestions for improvement, or to request a digital copy please email Ryan Mullarkey at ryan.mullarkey@navigators.org