Equip

THE NEED OF THE HOUR

"Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know." Jeremiah 33:3

What is the greatest need of the hour in order to see God's main job of freeing an enslaved world? Is it more resources? More money? Greater justice from people and authorities? Dawson Trotman, the founder of The Navigators, speaks on Jeremiah 33:3 and addresses what he sees as the greatest need in God's Kingdom. Scan the code below to access the pdf to read and discuss.

The Need of the Hour

Questions for Reflection and Evaluation:

1. What often feels like the most pressing need of the hour for you as you join in God's work?
2. Thinking of your personal ministry, what things are you most tempted to rely on for the advancement of the Gospel?
3. How does this article change your understanding of how God sees the need of the hour?
4. What would it look like for you to join God in meeting this need of the hour?
5. What would it cost you?
6. What can you ask God to do in and through you this year to help meet the need of the hour?
7. We all need allies in this glorious mission. Who will you share your promises with? How will you hold each other accountable to continue to regularly pray for this?

This journal was made by the University of Arizona Navigators staff in 2020, with the latest update in 2025, and is meant to be shared. Please do not reproduce for profit.

For reproduction, corrections, suggestions for improvement, or to request a digital copy please email Ryan Mullarkey at ryan.mullarkey@navigators.org