

DAILY TIME WITH GOD

One of the most important, if not THE most important Spiritual habit for growth is spending daily time with God. Through Jesus Christ each of us have direct access to the God of the universe, who WANTS to spend time with us! And through God's inspired Word, the Bible, we can know everything He desires to say to us!

The Bible does not need to be intimidating! The Bible is a collection of 66 books written over the course of 2,000 years, across three continents in three different languages, all telling one unified story of the God of the universe saving His people. Over time, Bible translators have added chapters and verses to help readers navigate around the Bible easier.

QUIET TIME SANDWICH

One helpful way to think about reading the Bible everyday is to envision a sandwich, with the bread being prayer and the meat being reading the Bible.

1. Begin by praying and asking God to open your eyes to what He wants to show you.

2. Next, spend time reading a section of scripture. It is helpful to begin in a Gospel (Matthew, Mark, Luke or John), and simply read one or a few chapters a day. Consider the SOAP acronym: summarize, observe, apply, process. You will likely find it helpful to have a journal nearby to record any thoughts.

3. End your time by praying, reflecting over any thoughts or actions that came to mind while reading.

NEXT STEPS

Consider the following three questions to help this become a habit in your life!

TIME: Have a regular time to spend with Jesus picked out ahead of time.

PLAN: What will you read? Consider reading one chapter in both the New and Old Testament.

PLACE: Pick a location free from distraction where you'll be able to meet with God.

This journal was made by the University of Arizona Navigators staff in 2020, with the latest update in 2025, and is meant to be shared. Please do not reproduce for profit.

For reproduction, corrections, suggestions for improvement, or to request a digital copy please email Ryan Mullarkey at ryan.mullarkey@navigators.org