

SOLOMON ON SOCIAL MEDIA

The Bible offers timeless truths that wisely instruct our present day decisions. The book of Proverbs, written by King Solomon, continues to offer wisdom to the modern day reader.

Consider the verses and principles below. How might that principle apply to the modern day user of social media?

Verse	Principle	Application
Proverbs 29:20	Don't speak in haste. Count to ten before posting, sharing, sending, submitting, etc.
Proverbs 26:4	Leave the fool to his folly. Sometimes it's best not to give ammunition to someone picking a fight.
Proverbs 26:5	Expose folly. There are times when folly must be exposed, either if they are truly seeking wisdom, or are damaging others.
Proverbs 29:9	Know when to walk away, whether that means shutting down, logging off, blocking, etc.
Proverbs 26:8	Be careful what you read. Foolish people may seem wise, but they will still lead others astray.
Proverbs 29:22	Avoid the gossiper. Pursue what is noble rather than dishonorable.
Proverbs 27:2; 29:23	Be humble. Those who are humble and lowly in spirit will receive honor, while the arrogant will be brought low.
Proverbs 26:17	Mind your own business. Grabbing a stray dog by the ears will bring even more trouble; stay out of others' fights.
Proverbs 26:27	Don't be a troublemaker. Those who exist only to bring trouble to others will pay the price.
Proverbs 28:26	Walk with the Lord. Be a wise man or woman of the Word, rather than a fool who trusts in his or her own wisdom.
